TRAC's email has some "kinks" that are different from the old system, as responses to an email go to all of the TRAC membership. If you want to respond directly to the mail poster, be sure to only send it your reply to that individual and not hit "Reply".

TRAC's Poker Run is set for Saturday, July 18th. Fourteen cars are registered. A navigator would be help on this run, but is not required.

Brits By the Bay chair, James Meechie said he has received four checks from sponsors. There are three paid members and one paid non-member. Preparation is on track.

James Meechie will ask BBTB sponsors to send in their checks, as he hasn't heard from several of them as yet.

Picnic, August 22nd: : Karen has information from Chick Filet and Adams Ribs. James Meechie suggested checking Royal Farms for prices on their chicken. The club will pay for the meat and members will bring a side dish and soda.

A BBTB sponsor wanted to know why he wasn't listed on the website's BBTB sponsor pages. Gary said it is really time consuming to keep the sponsor's links up to date for all BBTB sponsors on the site, as they have changed at times in the past. The particular sponsor, however, will be added to the "Links" page of the website..

New business:

No drives are planned. If anyone is interested in organizing one, contact Gary or Chris.
