2. Thirteen members representing 8 memberships were in attendance. Attending were: Chris and Diane Horant, Randy Fryer, Gary and Priscilla Klein, John and Marie Boston, Don and Helen Cumberland, Craig Wensley, Bob Clark, Paul and Kathy Hagert.
3. Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.
4. Treasurer's Report – The checkbook balance is $5,713.84. Expenses included the Winter Dinner, awards, DJ and server tip. Income was $1,694.00 from Winter Dinner reservations and 3 renewals. New balance is $4,490.07.

Old Business

1. Chris asked for help to spread the work in the search for Chairpersons to lead TRAC's Brits By the Bay and Poker Run.

New Business

1. Much discussion was had about the Maryland House Bill 550, that consists of a change to the age requirements placing driving restrictions for cars tagged as Historic vehicles. Chris encouraged all TRAC members to send a letter to their Representative and express their concern with the pending bill.
2. The TRAC Event Calendar on the website has been updated for 2012. If anyone has any new event, be sure to send it to Gary for inclusion on the calendar.
3. The MG is the featured marque at this year's Vintage Grand Prix in Pittsburgh.
4. An overage of $18 from the collected money for the dinner was kept for the Treasury.
5. Adjournment at 8:30PM
